- Notes:
1. There is no special interest between the candidates and the Company.
 2. The tenure of each candidate refers to the number of years served as of the date of the conclusion of this Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.
 3. The number listed for Attendance at Board of Directors meetings for each candidate refers to the result during the period of fiscal 2025 for which that Director's tenure was current.
 4. Mito Shimonaka, Koji Koyanagi and Mizuho Noguchi are candidates for external Director.
 5. The Company has submitted notification to the Tokyo Stock Exchange that Mito Shimonaka and Koji Koyanagi have been appointed as independent officers as provided for by the aforementioned exchange. If their reelection and the election of Mizuho Noguchi are approved, the Company plans to submit a notification to the exchange concerning their appointment as independent officers.
 6. Based on the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the Company has entered into agreements with Mito Shimonaka and Koji Koyanagi limiting their liability for damages under Article 427, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act to the extent allowed by laws and regulations. If their reelection and the election of Mizuho Noguchi are approved, the Company plans to renew and enter into this agreement with them.
 7. The Company has entered into a directors and officers liability insurance policy based on Article 430-3, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act with an insurance company. This policy will compensate for damages arising due to the Directors of the Company and other insured persons bearing responsibility in relation to the performance of their duties or receiving a claim relating to the pursuit of such responsibility. However, there are certain exemption clauses, such as when an insured person commits an act while recognizing it is an act in violation of laws and ordinances. If the candidates are elected and assume office as Directors, they will become insured persons under that insurance policy. In addition, the Company plans to renew this insurance policy under the same conditions at the next renewal.
